Welcome to Mrs. Whitmer's English Literature Class

I have an open door policy! Please come in any time. If you need to contact me for any reason, please don't hesitate to call or email!

HELLO PARENTS AND STUDENTS!

It is with great enthusiasm and joy to welcome all of you into the fascinating world of English Literature! This quarter will be pretty fast paced and seeing as how it is a senior level class, it will be challenging. Luckily, we have the best and brightest students at our school and I have no doubt that each student will succeed.

HOMEWORK

Please understand that homework will be given out during the quarter. I do not hand out busy work. Every assignment that is handed out is important and must be completed and turned in to me. Please remind students that they are going to be held accountable for their own effort in learning.

RULES AND CONSEQUENCES

The students will be bringing home their syllabus today from school. Inside will be the rules and consequences which will need to be read and signed by both you and your child and returned by the next class we have together. Once again, I'm am very excited about getting to know you and your student! Lets have a great year!
